Lafayette st., a permit for the building will have a 36 ft. frontage on Lafayette st. and extend 129 ft. in depth, allowing for restaurant room, 35 by 88 ft. and five rooms on lower floor, and 29 rooms with four baths on the upper. Estimated cost of construction is placed at $15,000.

Only One Dress in Year. Wife Says; Asks Decree

Because her husband is alleged to have bought her only one dress during the year following October, 1921 and to have contributed nothing toward her support during 10 months of that time, Daisy Hoque filed suit in Superior court No. 2, Thursday, for a divorce from her husband, Louis. She further charges him with associating with other women, and infidelity. They were married in October, 1921, and separated in October, 1922, and she asks for the custody of their two sons.

Notorious Laporte Resort Closed by Ministers

LAPORTE, Nov. 23.—"The Switch" LaPorte's famous "Red Light" resort, is finally closed after years of unsuccessful attempts on the part of citizens opposing its operation. The Ministerial association is given credit for orders being sent by police to Mrs. Jessie Morris, proprietress, to close up and get out. Mrs. Morris, who owns considerable property on LaPorte's avenues, has gone to Canada but she says she will return soon.

Yeggs Wreck Bank, Wound Trio of Persons and Steal $4,000

GALLATIN, Mo., Nov. 23.—(By I. N. S.)—Three men are seriously wounded, the First National bank here is wrecked, telephone and telegraph wires are all out and $4,000 is missing from the bank safe here as the result of activities early this morning of six desperate bank robbers.

The handits were discovered at work by John Chamberlin, town marshal. Binding him, the handits set off two powerful explosions of nitroglycerin, wrecking the bank.

The force of the explosion hurled chairs in all directions, wrecked partitions and broke windows, tearing the heavy safe apart as it was pastboard.

Two assault and battery defendants were arraigned before Special Judge Korvas in city court Thursday. Complainants against each were women.

Frank Slater, 23, living at 1223 W. Division st., is alleged to have made an unprovoked attack upon Emily Werwinski. The same offense is charged against Howard Ondera-lous, 27, living at 315 E. LaSalle av., by Marie Clark. Both men were arrested Wednesday night at their homes.

"Pleas of 'not guilty' were entered by the defendants and their cases set for hearing Monday.

ACCUSE DETROIT MAN OF KILLING WIFE'S VISITOR

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 23.—A postmortem was to be conducted today to determine the cause of the mysterious death of Fred W. Prince, New York City, publicity man, at 1524 Clairmont av., shortly after midnight. Prince, employed by the Western Electric Co., was about 45 years old.

Wesley Pett, Hotel Statler, in whose wife's apartment Prince died, is in custody on a murder charge.

Five others were booked as witnesses. They are: Mrs. Irma Pett, Susan Turner, Mrs. Bernice Handy, Forest Applegate and Albert Dobbie-hoff.

Prince was found unconscious at midnight in the hallway on the first floor of the apartment house of the Clairmont av. address.

No marks indicating violence were found on Prince's body, yet he is known to have been in apparent bubbling health but a few moments prior to his death.
